...a great way to live

Challenge Team UK

Enjoy positive friendships based on respect and trust, qualities that build lasting relationships.

1

Safeguard your health and enjoy the freedom to be respected for who you are and to plan your future.

2

Make friends first and look forward to creating a strong sexual and emotional bond when you marry.

3

Why marriage?

Unmarried couples who live together are much more likely to split up.

Living together often leads to living alone.

Marriage is the best way to bring up kids.

Married couples report the most satisfaction with their sex lives.

4

Marriage is much more than a piece of paper. Marriage is a public commitment supported by family and friends. Two individuals become united together.

Sex saved for marriage makes the marriage stronger and more likely to last.

5

Look forward to enjoying sex with your future husband or wife.

6

Saving sex for marriage means...

Avoiding the teenage epidemic of STIs and the long term problems associated with them.

No contraceptive is 100% reliable

7

Saving sex for marriage means...

Zero risk of teenage pregnancy.

8

Saving sex for marriage means...

Avoiding emotional heartache, emptiness or creating memories you would rather forget.

9

Remember - 30% of teenage conceptions occur when teens are drunk. Take care with alcohol.

10

Save sex for marriage
...it makes sense
